REV. W. T. ROBERTS GOES TO NEW CHARGE

Cruton Parish Will Again Take Up Regular Church Work.

NOW IN DISORGANIZED STATE

Little Interest Taken in Congressional Politics, but a Lively One in the Circuit Judgeship-Able Men Candidates.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., June 20.—Rev. W. T. Roberts leaves to-day with his femily for his new charge at Rocky Mount.

Nothing whatever is heard of any plans looking to an election for vestrymen under the new canon adopted by the council in Norfolk. The special election provided for may be called for by the rector, the vestry, the wardens, any three of the vestry or any three of the contraction but were her beyond. gregation, but no move has been made by any one so far. In fact, church-life, so far as Bruton

Parish is concerned, has been absolutely non-existant, the church and parish house having been closed since Mr. Roberts reversal by the council not even the ordinary Sunday morning services having been held.

It is reasonable to suppose, however, that with the departure of the rector ever whose incumbency all the feeling was aroused, the proper parties will take steps to wake the church from its present dormant condition.

FOR CONGRESS.

Little is heard here of the rival candidates for Congress from this district and ordinary gossip gives no clue as to the sentiments of the people between Lawless

In a college town, where publi espeeches by the young and old are so often lis-tened to, the fact that Mr. Maynard is not a speaker and does not pretend to be, has failed to arouse much clamor in his behalf, and has hurt him beyond his just deserts. To an unbiased observer, it looks as if the town is a coy maiden who can be wood successfully by the first deserving young man who comes along, More is heard of the contest for circuit judge between Messrs, Barnes and Hubbard Hon, Manly H. Barnes has a broth er who is very influential in county poli-tics, and another brother who was for a long time chairman of the party in the county, and who has recently moved to town and been given a substantial wel-come in the shape of an election to the City Council.

MR. BARNES POPULAR.

These facts added to the personal popularity of the candidate himsel and his long centinued contact with the people ns a member of the Legislature, are to be considered.

On the other hand, the opposing candidate, Mr. J. F. Hubbard, is best known personally in town, having been em-ployed on one side or the other in every case of importance that has come up in the lower courts for the past twenty years or more. He is an alumni of Wil-liam and Mary and a member of the Board of the Hospital, so has points of contact with at least two large bodies of citizens. Ar. Hubbard expects to rive out in a few days the contract for his new house to be built just outside of the city limits in York county. Here-tofore he has been living ten miles away, near the Warwick line, so he is literally as well as figuratively, coming closer to our people.

CHINCOTEAGUE CELEBRATION

Big Preparations for the Fourth of July Man Drowned.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) CHINCOTEAGUE, VA., June 20.—Great preparation is being made for the 4th of July this year, which will eclipse all celebrations of the past for years. Among the many attractions already scheduled are races for all boats eighteen feet and are races for all boats eighteen feet and wider for handsome purses, parade by the Odd-Fellows on horseback, led by the Chincoteague's brass band, horse races, 2:40 and three minute classes for large purses, bicycle races, church festivals and fireworks.

The schooner Wharton arrived this week form New York with a large cargo of bricks, and while on her way one of her deck hands was accidentally drowned several miles up the coast while endeavoring to save an oar which had fallen overboard. Though an expert swimmer, he was taken with a cramp and sank before any one could get to

POCAHONTAS FIELD

Little Change in the Strike Situation There-Some Trouble With Strikers.

(By Associated Press.)
ROANOKE, VA., June 20.—There is little change to-day in the strike situation in the Pocahontas coal field. Sheriff or lazewell county, is experiencing some trouble with miners in the vicinity of Pocahontas, but so far the Norfolk and Western officials have no report of any serious encounters. About 275 cars were loaded yesterday, and th coutput to-day will be about the same.

The operators say they do not expect to make any gains in the tonnage of coal being mined until after the marching bands have worn themselves out, and the other men who are staying around the old haunts have laid down their arms. The operators do not anticipate losing any of the men now at work.

The railroad people have no confirmation of the report that five miners were killed by strikers throwing dynamite into a shaft near Williamsburg, W. Va. The story was given out by some miners who passed through here to-day on a train bearing the bodies of two miners. The boxes bore certificates that the men had been killed by an explosion of dynamite, but beyond this nothing can be learned.

Mr. Glass Ably Defende His Record Against Mr. Claytor's Attacks at South Boston Last Week-Mr. Claytor Asks Joint Debate.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) SOUTH BOSTON, June 2.—Hon. Carter Glass addressed the people of South-Boston last night; a large and enthusiastic audience greeted the Senator from Lynchburg; many of South-Boston's fairest daughters were present and the scene at the Opera House was one of unusua! brilliancy.

Upon the platform were some citizens of South Boston's most prominent citizens, among them were Col. Henry Essley, Hon. Jos. Stebbins, Messrs. R. S. Barbour and W. D. Barbour, H. J. Watkins, S. F. Gililand, R. C. Glenn, W. A. Willingham, Hon. R. R. Noblin, Col. Jno. I. Cunningham, and Mr. R. H. Beaseof the News.

Mr S. J. Slate made the introductory speech and referred to the warm friend-ship ever existing between Halifax and Lynchburg and referred to Mr. Glass as a Democrat, who wins the victories of his party by inflexible courage, and spoke of the honor that Hallfax Democrats pay a man who fights whether with pen or voice. Mr. Slate then presented Mr. Noblin as presiding officer.

MR. STEEBINS SPEAKS.

Hon. Jos. Stebbins, member of the Constitutional Convention from Halifax, paid Mr. Glass the highest tribute as to his worth and efficiency as a member of that great body, and closed his fine address with ringing applause.

Col. Henry Easley also paid Mr. Glass a high tribute and was liberally ap-Mr. Watkins, in a beautiful and chaste way, introduced Mr. Glass.

When Mr. Glass arose the scene was one of unusual brilliancy; fair women applauding. Mr. Glass had to wait for the applause, to die away before he could begin. Just at this time Mr. Claytor had entered the Opera House and taken a rear seat. Mr. Glass referred to his greeting by the people in feeling terms. He paid a glowing tribute to the town, and smid dearening applause, completely vindicated his record on the question of the employers' liability bill and Confederate pension bill. He was loudly cheered by the old soldiers in the audience.

He also paid a glowing tribute to Halifax Democracy. No Democrat in recent years has had such an ovation as Mr. Glass. Halifax is enthusiastically for him and will support him for the nomination by an overwhelming majority in the county.

MR. CLAYTOR'S DEMAND. Only one thing happened to mar the meeting. Mr. Claytor arrived here at 8:20 o'clock in the evening, and with a meeting already advertised in Glass's behalf. ing already advertised in Grass's defiant with the opera house secured, with local speakers invited, with local notices in the county papers for two issues, appeared a few minutes before the opening time and asked for a joint discussion, provided suitable terms could be arranged. Mr. Glass was to meet Mr. Claytor at Houston, Monday, and sald he would be glad to meet Mr. Claytor here, though Mr. Claytor had already spoken one hour Mr. Claytor had already spoken one hour and twenty minutes here in his own behalf, and bitterly assailed Senator Glass record directly after their joint discussion at Charlotte without knowledge of Glass or notice to h.m.

Mr. Claytor suggested the following terms:

terms: TERMS OFFERED. Mr. Glass to open in forty minutes; Mr. Claytor to reply in one hour; Mr. Glass to rejoin in twenty minutes; Mr. Glass in answer to this submitted the follow g proposition; Mr. Glass to open in thirty minutes; Mr. Claytor to reply in forty-five minutes; Mr. Glass to rejoin in thirty minutes.

Air. Claytor made the following proposition to this: Mr. Glass to open in fitty; minutes; Mr. Claytor to reply in one hour. Mr. Glass to rejoin in twenty minutes; Air. Glass agreed to this, provided Mr. Claytor would allow him twenty-five minutes to reply to Mr. Claytor, which Mr.
